SOUVENIR
Memory like the ivy clings
To olden times and ways and things
NOT FOR SCHOOL BUT FOR LIFE WE LEARN

Oh! sweet it is when tasks are done,
And we have earned a rest,
To let our inclinations run
In ways we like the best.

And sweet, too, when the fields are green,
And summer's in its glow,
To wander 'mid some sylvan scene,
Where shadows come and go.

Opportunity

They do me wrong who say I come no more.
When once I knock and fail to find you in.
For every day I stand outside your door.
And bid you wake, and ride to fight and win.

Wail not for precious chances passed away,
Weep not for golden ages on the wane!
Each night I burn the records of the day.
At sunrise every soul is born again.

Laugh like a boy at splendors that have sped
To vanished joys be blind and deaf and dumb:
My judgements seal the past dead with its dead,
But never bind a moment yet to come.

Though deep in mire, wring not your hands and weep:
I lend my arm to all who say, "I can."
No shamefaced outcast ever sank so deep
But yet might rise and be again a man.

And scarce can hide the rising tear
We're glad for changes on life's way
Yet sad to part from schoolmates dear
